

Running a FIRST LEGO League Challenge Team in Fall 2020

Sample Team Guidelines

[Note: These are not official guidelines from FIRST. Just personal thoughts from one team]

[illegible]

Cleaning, Sanitizing, Disinfecting	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Students and coaches will wash their hands with soap and water when they arrive ● Students will also clean hands with hand sanitizer ● All hard surfaces (desks, chairs, door handles) will be cleaned with Clorox wipes and/or industrial strength classroom cleaner before and after use. ● Robot is cleaned between meetings ● Allow for 3-5 days between meetings – which should be long enough for the virus to die ● Laptop/computer is cleaned between meetings (look up manufacturer's guidelines. If there are no guidelines, an alcohol spray (70% alcohol/30% water) might be adequate.)
Outreach Events	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● No traditional outreach activities in person until restrictions are lifted ● If an outreach event is allowed, any equipment will be handled only by a single team member. If equipment is shared with a non-team member, it must be cleaned before a team member uses the equipment again. ● Equipment must be quarantined for 3-5 days and cleaned as per the above guidelines.
Field trips and Expert Interview	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Field trips and expert interviews are conducted remotely ● If the situation allows, all government guidelines and social distancing guidelines for meetings and transportation will be followed
Tournaments	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Follow government guidelines for large group gatherings and social distancing. ● Attend remote events if available ● School transportation: distancing will be enforced by reducing the number of students in a vehicle/bus or parents will drive their own child to an event ● When using team/school transportation, hand washing and/or sanitizer will be used before entering the van/bus ● Masks will be required on the bus and the events at all times. ● At an event, team members will limit interactions with other teams. They will follow all guidelines from the tournament organizer.

